LABOUR MEETING AT PAREL.

NEED OF ORGANISATION.

A public meeting of the labourers of Bombay was held in the Bombay Workmens' Institute at Parel on Tuesday evening under the auspices of the Central Labour Board of Bombay, Mr. V. J. Patel Bar-at-Law was to have presided but unforeseen circumstances prevented him from doing so. In his absence Mr. F. J. Ginwala, Solicitor, Vice-President of the Central Labour Board, took the chair. Mr. Jhabwala the Hon. Secretary of the Board explained to the men the object of the meeting and in so doing emphasised the need of large numbers of labourers joining the Trade Unions, be they of any business whatsoever. Unity was the principal need of the hour and to secure benefits for themselves the labourers ought to join their Unions. Sick benefits, death benefits, Cooperative Credit Society, Kamgar Sahayak Foundry, unemployment benefit etc. were some of the benefits the unions under the Central Labour Board were giving to their men and now it was contemplated to start a Bombay Labourer's paper shortly.

Mr. Charles T. Wheeler, General Secretary of the Amalgamated Society of Railway Servants followed Mr. Jhabwala and asked the men to flock in large numbers to the Labour Unions. He gave his own experience of Trade Unionism and concluded with an appeal to strengthen the cause of Labour by uniting and organizing.

Mr. C. Bhukhandas of the B. B. & C. I. Railway Union, Messrs. Tendulker, and Keshav Parab from the Postmen's Union and Mr. Rele from the G. I. P. Union also addressed the meeting on various questions pertaining to Labour.

RANGOON DEVELOPMENT TRUST.

GOVT. RECOMMENDS REASONABLE COMPENSATION.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

RANGOON, June 28.

The local Government's resolution on Rangoon Development Trust report emphasises as paramount necessity that suitable provision at reasonable rate be made for the population displaced by the improvement, as it would be lamentable, if at anytime, the Trust could be legitimately charged with postponing the interests of the poorer classes to the interests of others well able to look after themselves. The difficulty of the problem must be notably held to absolve the Trust from doing all possible to protect the interest of labouring population from land-owners.

The Badaun Zemindars Conference has passed a resolution requesting the period of regime of the present Governor of U. P. be extended. (A. P.)

SIND NEWS.

FRESH KHADAR PROPAGANDA.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

KARACHI, June 20.

The four non-cooperators of Jacobabad, Dr. Menghraj, Messrs. Kodhumal, Radhomal and Thakandas who have been in Shikarpur jail for more than a month, were transferred to the Sukkur jail. They were taken to Sukkur in a manner not praiseworthy, for they were handcuffed and bound together in twos. Do Government real se the indignation created in the people's minds at seeing such a sort of treatment meted out to respectable men?

Mr. Sobhraj Valecha, Secretary, Shikarpur Congress Committee, and another person by name Kanialal, who were sentenced to four months in connection with the obstruction of a public road were released on Saturday last in Shikarapur.

There was no procession at Hyderabad on the 18th instant in connection with Gandhi Day. Congress had applied for a pass to the police in pursuance of the recent order of the District Magistrate, but owing to certain conditions being attached to the granting of the necessary permission the idea of the procession was dropped.

KHILAFAT ACTIVITIES.

The District Khilafat Conference of Sahiti held a successful session at Bakhri under the presidentship of Peer Azizulashah Rashdi. Government servants and Zamindars tried their utmost to stop the conference. They even went so far as to threaten some people with a show of arms. Armed police marched through the neighbouring villages to overawe the people. In spite of all this, the conference was a brilliant success.

The Sind Provincial Khilafat Conference has decided to convene the session of the Sind Khilafat Conference at Sukkur on the 8th and 9th of the next month. Mr. Pickthall has been unanimously elected as the president. Messrs. Patel, Motilal Nehru, Mrs. Naidu, Shri Shankar Acharaya, Mr. Jamnalal Bajaj and Mr. Rambhuj Dutt Choudhri and others have been invited to attend.

The director of the khaddar department of the Congress has recommended that a loan of Rs. 50,000 be given to Sind for khadi propaganda and khadi produce, Rs. 20,000 to be given immediately, Rs. 20,000 after Sind has produced thin and good yarn, and the remaining Rs. 10,000 after Sind has produced a good Khadi of a good length.

GANDHI DAY AT KARACHI.

The 18th June, the 3rd Gandhi Day, was celebrated at Karachi with enthusiasm. On the 18th evening a procession went through the streets from the Congress Office. At 8-30 p.m. a public meeting was held at the Idgahah Maidan under the presidentship of Mr. Sunderdas Valabdas. About 2,000 people were present including a considerable number of ladies. The proceedings of the meeting commenced with the singing of National songs. The majority of the speakers laid emphasis on the use of khadi and the promotion of Hindu-Moslem Unity.

The request for the revision of the sentence, passed on Mr. Virumal Begraj of Sukkur, made by the District Magistrate of Sukkur, came up for disposal in the Judicial Commissioner's Court, Messrs. B. C. Kennedy and A. H. Aston formed the Bench. Mr. Virumal, it will be remembered, was sentenced by the City Magistrate of Sukkur to six months' rigorous imprisonment under Section 143 I. C. (unlawful assembly), to six months under 504 I. P. C. (defamation) and to 12 months' simple imprisonment under 117 I. P. C. (abetting of more than 10 persons in committing an offence), the sentences to run concurrently. The District Magistrate requested the Judicial Commissioner to change the last sentence from the consecutive to a concurrent one with the first two and thereby make the total period of one year's duration only. Mr. Aston in the course of his judgment remarked that from first to last the intention of Mr. Virumal was to insult the Hon. Magistrate, who was the alleged father of the imitation bride-groom. He thought as the District Magistrate did, that the offence was a serious one, yet after consultation with Mr. Kennedy, he agreed that all the sentences should run concurrently, changing the period of imprisonment from two years to one year, but six months of it were to be rigorous and six months simple, as against the request made by the District Magistrate for the whole imprisonment to be rigorous.

COMPULSORY PRIMARY EDUCATION IN "CONJEEVARAM."

(ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

MADRAS, June 28.

"The "Madras Mail" writes:—The Conjeevaram Municipal Council in Chingleput District is the first to introduce compulsory scheme amongst municipal bodies in this Presidency. It has levied the necessary educational cess and has found the necessary school accommodation for the large number of boys of school-going age in the Municipal area. The compulsory system allows schools to exempt boys of a section or class of communities from attendance and for providing facilities for attendance in half-time and night schools. It is also provided to give one meal in schools to such pupils as have no means for maintenance. The most important feature of the system is provision of manual training for boys, the provision being intended to meet the needs of artisan and working classes.

The "Rangoon Mail" says that Mr Sivaraman, the Printer and Publisher of the paper will be released on Friday after serving sentence of six months' simple imprisonment under section 124 A.

THE STOCK EXCHANGE FIASCO.

TO THE EDITOR OF "THE CHRONICLE."

Sir,—I would put certain queries to your correspondent, Mr. Patel.

Are the Bulls solely to blame for the speculative gambling in shares? Have not the Bears materially and foolishly contributed to this speculative fever, by making spurious sales of shares which they do not possess, and the numbers of which are in considerable excess of the number of shares of particular mills? Are the Bears in any manner cheated or deluded into selling shares and are not they doing this with their eyes wide open? Is it in any way unfair for the Bulls to buy, as it is fair on the part of the Bears to sell? Is it not a fair game or tussle, initiated quite in a sporting spirit, to necessitate the most unfair and thoroughly one-sided interference, and intrusian, from the Board of Directors? What earthly reason, barring personal or selfish considerations, had the Board of the Stock Exchange, to take sides, and sully its fair and impartial name? How can the public be supposed to hold the least respect or faith in a body, so constituted? Is not this step on the part of the Board, a premium given to the Bears, to make sales with impunity, being conscious of the fact that the Directors are standing at their back, to uphold them? Is it not time for the public to call a meeting and raise strong protest against the wild, erratic and unreasonable manner, in which things are managed, and which jeopardize public interest and monetary safety? Is commercial morality and sanctity of the contracts entered into by several brokers, supported and upheld by the action of the Directors?

I hope Mr. Patel will take the trouble to answer these queries, in the interest public good and public morality of business —Yours, etc.,

DECLARES HIMSELF AGAINST DYARCHY.

(FROM A CORRESPONDENT.)

RANGOON, June 28.

Rev. U. Ottama was released from the Maubin jail a week before the proper time. He was brought secretly, during night, on Monday to Kamayut where he lives in his kyoung. As soon as his release became known, people in hundreds, Burmese men, women and children and Indians went to greet him. A regular stream is going in and coming out of the Tattwin monastery. Rev. Ottama is reduced by 15lbs. but is as keen, enthusiastic and open-minded as ever. He hopes to enter whole-heartedly into the present political struggle, to make a dead set against dyarchy, and to set aright the notions of a few Burmese leaders. MR. M. S. SUBRAMANIA IYER SENTENCED

GOES SMILINGLY TO JAIL.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

MADRAS, June 29.

The case in which Mr. M. S. Subramania Iyer, a well-known Congress worker in the city, was called upon to show cause why security should not be demanded of him to keep the peace for a period of one year in accordance with the provisions of Section 108 was disposed of yesterday by the Chief Presidency Magistrate at the Egmore Police Court. When the case was called in Srij Subramania Iyer entered the Court Hall smiling. On entry into the hall he was garlanded by Srj. M. K. Acharya, but the garland was removed by the Court Inspector, the Magistrate remarking that there should be no political demonstration in the Court.

After the prosecution evidence was completed, the accused was asked by the Court whether he had any statement to make. Srj. Subramania Iyer would have nothing to do with the Court and so nodded his head to indicate a negative reply. His Worship then delivered the judgment calling upon Subramania Iyer to furnish personal security for Rs. 500 and two sureties of Rs. 200 each, in default to undergo one year's simple imprisonment. Srj. Iyer chose to go to jail. He left the Court amidst cries of "Vande Mataram", "Mahatma Gandhi ki Jai" and "Allah-o-Akbar". Quite a large gathering was present in the Court to witness the proceedings.

HIGH COURT.

BEGUM'S GIFT OF 20 LAKHS.

APPLICATION FOR INJUNCTION.

Before Mr. Justice Mulla.
Nawab Saiyed Kalim Hussein
vs.
Nawab Moulvi Syed Mahomed Razvi and others.

This was the hearing of a rule nisi for receiver and injunction granted to the plaintiff. The plaintiff filed this suit substantially for a declaration that certain properties in the hands of the 1st defendant, who is the plaintiff's father were held by him the 1st defendant in trust for the plaintiff. The plaintiff alleged that one Pasha Leakat-un-nessa Begum who was a niece of H. E. H. the late Nizam of Hyderabad owned moveable and immoveable properties of a very large value. In 1910 the said Begum, who was then a widow married the 1st defendant, the plaintiff's father. The plaintiff further alleged that as the said Begum had no male issue of her own she treated the plaintiff who was the son of the 1st defendant by another wife with great affection. About 1912 the Begum made a gift of ornaments of the value of about Rs. 15 lakhs and of a sum of Rs. 5 lakhs in cash to the plaintiff who was then a minor, and delivered possession thereof to the 1st defendant to hold the same in trust for the plaintiff with a direction to invest the same in the purchase of immoveable properties. Pursuant to the direction certain immoveable properties were purchased out of the said cash and the sale proceeds of certain ornaments. The said purchaser, the plaintiff alleged, were made by the 1st defendant as trustee for the plaintiff. The plaintiff further alleged that the 1st defendant, who was now over 70 years old and imbecile was alienating the trust properties and selling the ornaments, and at the instigation of designing person squandering the sale proceeds thereof. He had also failed to render an account of the trust properties. He had further recently transferred some of the properties to the 2nd and 3rd defendants, the former of whom was in illegitimate son of the 1st defendant and the latter a convert Hindu woman. The plaintiff prayed for a declaration that the properties were trust properties and he was beneficially entitled to the same. He further prayed for the appointment of a Receiver to take charge of the properties and for an injunction restraining the 1st defendant some dealing with and disposing of the properties.

On 20th of June last his Lordship granted a rule nisi and an interim injunction restraining the defendants from dealing with the properties. He further appointed Mr. N. H. Moos in terim receiver to take charge of the properties.

At the argument of the rule Mr J. D. Davar appeared for the plaintiff in support of the rule.

Mr. M. A. Jinnah with Mr. O'Gorman appeared for the defendants to show cause.

In support of his case the plaintiff put in several affidavits in which he alleged that his father the 1st defendant had of late lost the exercise of his intelligence and was in the hands of several designing persons and women of ill repute. He was an imbecile incapable of managing his own affairs.

The 1st defendant by his affidavits stated that the allegations made in the plaint were false. He denied that his wife Liakat-un-nessa Begum had made a gift of the ornaments and cash of a large value to the plaintiff. He further denied all the allegations of misconduct and waste and squandering of the monies made against him by the plaintiff. On the contrary, this plaintiff had of late taken to wasteful and extravagant courses. He denied that he was over 70 years of age. He was about 55 and as vigorous in body and mind as any man of his age. He further stated that the 2nd defendant was his legitimate son, and that his relations with the 3rd defendant were not improper.

After hearing Counsel's arguments his Lordship made an order directing the Receiver Mr. Moos, to make an inventory of the safes, boxes and cupboards sealed by him. As regards the documents, securities, etc., Mr. Moos was directed to seal the packets and hand over the packets so sealed to the Prothonotary. On the 1st defendant giving an undertaking not to alienate the ornaments and properties, the rule was discharged, the costs being made costs in the cause.

Sowing continues generally. Inundation in Sind is satisfactory and sowing was in progress. Water-supply for drinking and irrigation was generally adequate. Supply of fodder was sufficient. Agricultural stock was generally in good condition. Prices of food-grains were almost stationary. The quantities purchasable per rupee were as follows:—

The National Muslim High school, Bombay, and its Nagpada branch were opened on the 10th instant after the Ramjan Vacation and have begun to work in earnest. The new and revised course of studies of the National Muslim University, Aligarh, to which this High School is affiliated, has been adopted with the addition of Gujarati as a second language. Arrangements for teaching typing, accountancy, correspondence, etc., have been made.

The school has, a complete and efficient staff consisting of enthusiastic teachers with Maulavi Faiz Ahmed, M.A. of the Punjab as the Head-Master. Efforts are being made to get a spacious building for the school in a better locality.

The public, and especially the Moslem public, are appealed to help the institution financially so that the patriotic work may be carried on without difficulty.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

The "Morning Post's" Constantinople correspondent says it appears that the Angora Government is organising immigration of Mohammedans from Russia in order to fill up the gaps caused by deportations and massacres by the Greeks on the Black Sea coast.

The official Kemalist statistics show that two thousand Moslem Tartars from the Crimea were brought to Samsun in May and that thirty thousand are to be brought in.

CONFESSIONS OF A CO-OPERATOR!

TO THE EDITOR OF "THE CHRONICLE."

Sir,—In the February number of the "Contemporary Review," Mr. P. C. Ray, Editor of the "Bengalee", and an eminent Co-operator, contributes an interesting article, "India at the Cross Road." To Loyalists and Liberals, who boom the Reforms and the New Councils, I dedicate the views of their own spokesman.—Writes Mr. Ray:—

(1) "Reforms are widely condemned as an inadequate measure towards her national self-realization"!

(2) The withdrawal of Nationalists has "left the field open to a small minority of placemen title hunters, and aspirants to office"!

(3) "With this majority, weak-kneed landlords, indifferent lawyers, and talukdars, mealy-mouthed bankers and merchants threw in their lot"!

(4) "Dyarchy has proved a still-born experiment"!

(5) "Dyarchy has involved the provinces in much greater expenditure than their revenues warrant"!

(6) People say, "if dyarchy only means new taxes and new loans, we were better left alone"!

(7) "I am strongly of opinion", writes Mr. Ray, that Ministerial Extremists or the Official Liberals do not hold the future of India in their hands"!

(8) The failure of the Councils "to do much useful service is now openly declared in the Press, and on the platforms of India—not necessarily extremist or non-co-operation"! And.

(9) That the Councils have shown "absence of courage and independence"! The subsequent observations of Mr. Ray are also interesting to those of us, who are drawn to the New Councils!

(10) The powers of veto and restoration have greatly undone the little good work of the Councils!

(11) "The Montford scheme of Reforms has fallen almost still-born from the Parliamentary anvil"!

(12) "The Government must relize that the time for the next advance has no come"!

(13) "So long, at any rate, as the Police and the Public services and Justice are retained within portfolioes or the "reserved" departments, the spirit of self-realization will be checked"!—In short, the Reforms are inadequate! The Councils are filled with placemen! Dyarchy has failed! And Veto and Restoration have stifled the Councils! Where is the good of entering them at this stage?

It must be said in all fairness, that Mr. Ray deplores the withdrawal of Nationalists from the Councils. But what could they have achieved materially against the Governors' powers of veto and restoration? Mr. Ray sounds a vote of warning to Government! "The Government must realize that the time for the next advance has now come. That way lies salvation and the foundation of an ever lasting unity between India and England." Will Britain listen? Will the Bureaucracy let her listen. Let us wait and watch.—Yours, etc.

BARJORJI FRAMJI BHARUCHA.

CONSISTENCY.

TO THE EDITOR OF "THE CHRONICLE."

Sir,—There has been going on a veritable howl over the resumption of legal practice by Mr. M. R. Jayakar. Mr. Jayakar has tendered his resignation of the Presidentship of Girgaum D. C. C. and given the quietus to the agitation started against him. This raises the question of the resignation of another man from another office. At the session of the Akhil Maharashtra Conference held at Akola, Dr. M. B. Velkar, who is the joint Secretary of the Provincial Congress Committee of Bombay, voted in favour of entering the Councils. Now boycott of Councils is as much an item of the Congress programme of Non-Cooperation as the boycott of Law Courts. What was worse was that Dr. Velkar voted without even being deputed for the purpose. Can this Doctor, who cotes in favour of entering the Councils, stick to his office of the Secretary of the B. P. C. C.? We remember Mr. S. Satyamurti of Madras resigned his office of the Secretary of the M. P. C. C. because he held a view on the subject of Councils and Courts against the majority. Must Dr. Velkar not do the same or forswear his view in favour of entering the Councils? It is hoped a doctor is required to conform to rules no less than a lawyer.—Yours etc.

MARATHA.

TERRORISH NEAR PAREL VILLAGE.

TO THE EDITOR OF "THE CHRONICLE."

Sir,—Last night at about 10-30 p.m. an innocent Maratha resident of Bhowada Parel, whilst going home from Lal Baug along the Government Gate Road was assaulted seriously with knife by one notorious Molvi named K. . . a, just in front of Motlabai's Wadi. During the last couple of years this fellow has turned into a regular dacoit and his daring feats in looting the innocent passers by have left a very terrifying effect on the cosmopolitan residents of this part of the city. It is strange that inspite of numerous complaints, the Police authorities have not yet been able to deport this undesireable dangerous ruffian. As there is not a single Police watch at night time in an area of more than three miles, the Movalis try to please themselves anytime it suits their convenience. Will Mr. Bhagwant Rao, the Corporator, who is living nearby move the Corporation for the provision of proper Police surveilance in this much neglected and benighted part of the City?—Yours, etc.

"KANA MOGUL."

GIRGAUM DIST. WORD CONGRESS COMMITTEE.

TO THE EDITOR OF "THE CHRONICLE."

Sir,—Mr. Natarajan having joined the Congress, is now attacking and ridiculing the Congress Programme. He will not even give full freedom to speakers at public meetings and the other day he stopped Mr. R. Venkat Ram from expressing his views at a certain public meeting. His criticism is on the lines of the criticism of the Moderates and under the garb of being a follower and worshipper of Mahatma Gandhi he has joined the Congress with a set purpose, it seems clear, to break down non-cooperation.—Yours, etc.,

DUTY OF SOLDIERS.

IRISH MINISTER'S MESSAGE.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)
LONDON, June 29.

The Irish Minister for Defence in a message to the Irish Free State army calls upon the soldiers, having driven the tyranny of the stranger from the land, to protect her from the madness within of the men who destroyed all functions of the Government, desired again to embroil the people with the British, sullied the honour of the Irish people by murderous attacks on the defenceless civilians, and who are striving to drive people into a struggle which their strength cannot stand.

RESPONSIBILITY OF OPERATIONS.

MR. CHURCHILL'S STATEMENT.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)
LONDON, June 28.

In the House of Commons, at question time, Mr. Churchill said the Provisional Government's decision to attack Fourcourts in no way arose out of the debate in the House of Commons, nor, as a consequence of the Imperial Government's declaration of June 26th. The Provisional Government was solely responsible for the operations, and had declined the assistance of the Imperial forces except in the way of equipment.

Asked whether the Free State Government would be supplied with further supplies of arms, if a request was made, Mr. Churchill replied: "Certainly, if in my judgment and with the approval of my colleagues, that course is thought necessary and proper."

TENNIS AT WIMBLEDON.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)
LONDON, June 28.

The World's Lawn Tennis Championship was continued at Wimbledon to-day, in drizzling rain, which later turned into a downpour.

Interest centred in Mlle. Lenglen's initial appearance, the inter-Colonial battle, and the Franco-Spanish contest between Brugnon and Manuel Alonzo. Mlle. Lenglen was brilliant, but was not extended by Mrs. Ellis, whom she beat 6-0, 6-0.

Brugnon's accurate volleying and beautiful placing was responsible for the defeat of Alonzo by 6-3, 6-4, 4-6, 6-3.

The most surprising event was the defeat of the last year's challenger, Norton, over whom Anderson always had complete mastery, winning by 6-2, 6-3, 6-3. The Australian's terrific service, the accuracy in driving and the perfect placing left the South African helpless. It was regarded as a key-match of the Championship.

NEW BOOK BY.

PROF. VASWANI

In the Sikh Sanctuary.

The message of the Sikh Gurus and their Scriptures:—Great has been the contribution of the Sikhs to India's life. And great is the value of Sikh history and the Sikh Scripture for those who would help India to be a free nation in the coming days. To read Sikh history is to understand that the Sikh did not enter upon their historical mission, without going through a period of preparation. A succession of great souls—the Gurus—for almost a century helped the Sikhs to organise themselves into a strong community able to win victory against a great power. The author indicates in this volume the value of the Sikh message to us who are faced with the task of winning freedom against forces.

KRISHNA'S FLUTE.

Krishna's Flute has a message for the nations. At this hour when Bureaucracy has hurled against the nation a policy of force, when some of the noblest of India's sons are in chains, when hundreds of students are pressing forward to the Prison house as to a place of Pilgrimage—at this hour young men will find strength in the message of the Master's Flute.

INDIA ARISEN.

Professor Vaswani's book is a very helpful publication which explains "Swaraj" as it is understood (or at least ought to be understood in its widest significance) by the intelligentia of India. The present struggle, our author makes out, is a tug of war between Nationalism (in the broad sense) and the love of Liberty and Freedom on the one side and Power and Imperialism in the other. These have now reached a climax and a point of exhaustion, as it were, when Imperialism desires to trample down the spiritual aspirations of a rising Nation. Cult of Power leads to cult of violence and its necessary evils—hate and strife, struggle and discontent. Hate vibrations, we think, are fatal to any Government, foreign or national. Justice and efficiency may for a moment veil some dark deeds, yet lacking sympathy they cannot help showing up their darkness. The result is Agitation and Discontent which should at any cost be allayed. The solution lies in substituting Humanity for Imperialism and Sympathy for Power.

APOSTLES FREEDOM.

The history of the world's struggle for freedom is too often thought of as a matter of book learning. Professor Vaswani is fully alive to the importance of the personal factor in the struggle for freedom and in this book makes a galaxy of bright champions of freedom shine out as examples of purity of purpose and act for the warning and encouragement of those to-day in India who feel with some bewilderment the surge of new national life in their blood.

THE ARYAN IDEAL.

"MY MOTHERLAND SERIES." In this Series the author, T. L. Vaswani, will interpret aspects of the Spirit of India as reflected in her culture and civilization and in the lives of the saints and sages and heroes of her history. The first volume is named "The Aryan Ideal." The 'Aryan' includes the 'Hindu' and 'Buddhist.'

Back of the Series is the aspiration that in the present period of our struggle for freedom. India's young men may be helped, in howsoever humble a measure, to recover lost memory of India and the Indian ideal. What is wrong with us in India? Loss of memory. We have forgotten ourselves. The author believes that in the day we remember ourselves,—remember the real self of India—we shall have the strength to win Freedom's Battle.

India's gift to the Nations is not big machines, not the paraphernalia of comfort civilization but the vision of the One-in-all, the vision that makes us sons of the spirit. Price. Re. 1.

THE BOMBAY CHRONICLE.

THE AWAKENING.

At last our co-operating friends have begun to show some signs of awakening to the betrayal of their country by the British Government and Parliament and, what is more, by the bureaucracy in India. Hardly had the country recovered from the pleasant surprise of the great news of the half-awakening of Mr. Jamnadas Dwarkadas, M.L.A., to the realities of the situation, than the Associated Press hastened to inform it yesterday of "the serious warning to the Government" which has been sounded by Mr. Seshagiri Iyer in the course of a statement which he made to its representative regarding the "adverse effect of light-heartedly flouting the considered opinion of the Indian Legislature, by both Simla and Whitehall." The Associated Press has also told us that the redoubtable Dr. Gour also holds that Lord Winterton's recent speech has "created great disappointment amongst the constitutionalists." Doubtless, many more stalwarts of the Assembly will soon take the people of India into their confidence and acquaint them with their "discovery"—which the Congress made three years ago—that the so-called Reforms are "inadequate, unsatisfactory and disappointing," and, perhaps, as a counterblast, one or two "elder statesmen" of the Council of State will think it their duty to assure the distracted country by repeating what Mr. Jamnadas Dwarkadas, M.L.A., declared not many weeks ago that the "Reforms" are the panacea for all our evils and that their friends, Sir William Vincent and others, were whole-heartedly and, in a spirit of rare self-sacrifice, working to make them a complete success. However that may be, the awakening of Messrs. Jamnadas, Seshagiri Iyer and Gour, together with the little storm in the tea-cup in the U. P. over the question of the proposed extension of the term of Sir Harcourt Butler is the straw showing the direction of the wind. And our friends, we are glad to see, are tending towards a return to sanity. We are not sure, however, if our friends will have courage enough to take action suited to their words. For, it will be recalled that there was something like this awakening, on their part, on the eve of the intensive campaign of repression inaugurated soon after the arrival of the Prince of Wales. Our co-operating friends were, or at least seemed to be, seriously alarmed at the insensate march of repression. They protested, some of them even going to the length of threatening to become Non-co-operators. But as Pandit Motilal Nehru said the other day at Allahabad: "The Government were not perturbed by this show of petulance on the part of their spoilt children. They knew their customers too well. They gave them some toys to play, which our friends were never tired of holding up to the admiration of their co-adjutors. The Government even went further and allowed them to tinker with the reserved portions of the budget to please their fancy for a time. They have now joined the authorities in a general chorus of congratulations and declared that Non-co-operation is dead. They ask us to give up our objectionable methods which, according to them, have landed us in disaster, and invite us to follow their own path—the path strewn with roses, the path of reforms and rewards, of safety and comfort." This was the state of things upto but a few days ago. Along with the bureaucracy, our co-operating friends also seemed to have heaved a deep sigh of relief on the imprisonment of the Mahatma. They hastened to tell us that Non-co-operation had failed utterly and that the road to salvation lay only through the "Reforms." But they counted without their imperialistic and bureaucratic hosts, who had heaved a sigh of relief for altogether different reasons, not least of which was the clever manner in which they had succeeded in inducing the Co-operators to play into their hands against their own country.

Unfortunately for them the imperialists and bureaucrats and their organs, both here and in England, were not equally diplomatic in giving vent to their satisfaction. Lord Winterton's speeches in particular have but ill-concealed the too transparent an eagerness to show that his profession that reaction has not gained in strength is but a comouflage. By his latest utterance he performed the feat of mortally wounding our co-operating friends' vanity in its sorest points. He demolished with one stroke their triple dream-fabric of further expansion of "reforms," substantial reduction in military expenditure and epjoyment of fiscal autonomy. He told them bluntly Pentland-wise that they must put all thoughts of further grants of reforms out of their mind and he showed what worth he and his Government attach to much-advertised commissions like the Fiscal Commission and Lord Inchcape's Commission by promising Lanashire favourable reconsideration of the question of import duties and by declaring as his considered opinion that the existing scale of military expenditure is not only not extravagant but is necessary. No wonder that some of our co-operating friends have begun to realise that they have been all along living in a fool's paradise. If Mr. Seshagiri Iyer's view is to be regarded as a representative one, the disillusionment is almost a complete one. While Mr. Jamnadas was somewhat hesitant in his denunciation of the "Reforms,"—being doubtless overweighed by the recollection of his past enthusiasm,—Mr. Seshagiri Iyer did not mince matter. "They (the pro-Reform people) now felt seriously," he said, "that, handicapped as they were at every stage, they could do no good to the country through the reformed regime because the bureaucracy was still unchanged in its outlook." So much for the sincerity of bureaucracy in working the reforms about which we used to have assurances ad nauseam from official as well as non-official quarters. Mr. Seshagiri has no illusion about the "achievements" of the reformed Councils either. He said: "One thing alone could, at present, be said to the credit of the reforms, that they had roused the people to political consciousness, but with the complex machinery which the reforms had entailed, the expenses had grown enormously and economically India was worse under the reforms than before. The reason was obvious. The Assembly had no power to direct how the country's resources could be spent. They had at best the power of advice. It was thought by them when they entered the Councils that this advice would generally be adopted, but recent experience had shown that the Assembly had merely to vote money without any guarantee that it would be spent as directed by it." The last and most tragic disillusionment of all is that the Viceroy "had not been able to achieve all that he told the world or all that the Moderates expected of him!" O, what a great disappointment is this, friends! . . . . . .

But what is the remedy Mr. Seshagiri Iyer suggests? This is what he says:

"There were only two constitutional solutions for the present impasse, either that full autonomy should be granted as early as possible or that in the intermediate stage, bureaucracy must make up its mind not to set aside popular opinion expressed in Councils by their accredited representatives except in very extreme cases. He thought that the reasons for the present attitude of the Government was to be found in its anxiety to prefer British to Indian interests. If England is really anxious to give India control over her destiny, she must also be statesmanlike to make up her mind to stand any injury to her vested interests in India. For, every step towards regaining Indian interests would necessarily mean some injury to British interests. If neither of these two alternatives was forthcoming, the only consequence would be that India will again consist of one party, viz., Nationalists, and it would be an unthinkably difficult task for the British people to govern 350 millions of discontented and politically self-conscious people. He appealed to British statesmanship to seize the present opportunity and work honestly in the interests of India."

Obviously, if Mr. Seshagiri Iyer and his friends are capable of profiting by experience, both the alternatives he suggests are impossible of realization. If, during the last two years the bureaucracy, inspite of iis protestations of "co-operation," has not been able "to make up its mind not to set aside the popular opinion expressed in the Councils by their accredited representatives," where is the guarantee that it will do so in the future, when Mr. Seshagiri himself describes some at least of its members as "enemies of reforms"? Again, when, notwithstanding India's sacrifices in the war and the help she gave to England, no consideration of gratitude induced England to make up her mind to do justice to India, much less, as Mr. Seshagiri says, "to stand any injury to her vested interests in India," why must Mr. Seshagiri expect her to do so now? The root of the matter is that Mr. Seshagiri and his friends are yet reluctant fully admit what he himself rightly says that "the reason for the present attitude of Government was to be found in its anxiety to prefer British to Indian interests,"—and they still cherish the delusion that Swaraj can come to them only as a "gift" from the British public. They refuse to recognise, notwithstanding proofs, that the great British public, if it is neither ignorant of India's needs nor apathetic to her claims, is either too self-regarding to do justice to her people or is itself the victim of Big Business and imperialists—that, however sympathetic a Montagu may be, he can go only so far as those who really govern England will let him. Lord Reading had the unique opportunity of demonstrating that he, for his own part, was determined to perform his duty solely with an eye to the promotion of India's interests because he had the vision to see, as every wise and sincere well-wisher of the British Empire cannot help seeing, that that way alone lay the secret of the stability of the Empire. He has woefully failed to rise to the opportunity; for he lacks the vision. Mahatma Gandhi alone had the vision and, therefore, he begged his countrymen to assert their individuality, as equals of Britishers. He knew that the only way of keeping Britain and India together was for the former to give up the arrogant claim of determining the destiny of the latter and for both to meet together on terms of mutual equality and trust and adjust their differences. Until Britain saw the wisdom of doing this, there could be, he taught us, only one party in the country—a united people, claiming with one voice their right to be masters in their own country now and immediately but willing to safeguard all legitimate vested interests of Britishers and the Empire. That our co-operating friends are, one by one, beginning to have a dim perception of this is a fresh testimony to the sureness and greatness of his vision and will, we trust, be a warning to those Congressmen who are eager to capture the Councils. Yes, our Leader had the true vision. Let us remain loyal to him and we shall soon attain our goal. Let us be captains of our souls,—and we shall be masters of our destiny as surely as night follows day.

Notes of the Day

Mr. Sastri's "Achievements."

Since he set foot on Australian soil, Mr. Sastri has been making a royal progress through that Dominion, under the chaperonage of a Commonwealth official. The dinner given in his honor by "the Commonwealth Government" marks the climax of a series of pleasant incidents, which have fallen to the share of Mr. Sastri. The toast was proposed by no less a personage than the Prime Minister of Australia, who told the assembled guests that Mr. Sastri had come "as the representative of a people who, it might be said, after the slumber of ages were awakening and demanding consideration and voice in their Government." Other speeches were made, all conceived in a eulogistic vein. Mr. Sastri himself pitched his key high and was distinguished for his "sweet reasonableness" in his "pleadings for his countrymen domiciled in Australia." He was apologetic from start to finish, and, giving a wide berth to the dehumanising character of the Commonwealth administration, assumed a mendicant attitude, as though the future destiny of the world depended entirely on the selfish Whites of Australia magnanimously conceding a handful of Indian settlers—according to Mr. Sastri, two thousand, which is but an infinitesimal fraction in comparison with the Indian population—the franchise, invalid and old age pensions and a few other minor benefits. And he also loftily declared: "Let the Indians belong to the Empire as full citizens." If we are to believe the hypocritical professions of "Imperial statesmen," Indians are already "full citizens of the Empire"; only that it is not so in point of fact. Ameliorative measures, in the direction mentioned by Mr. Sastri, may do good to the Indians already settled in the Dominion, but such concession will not lead to a permanent solution of the issue that is raised by a "white" policy all over the Dominions. If Indians are regarded as "full citizens" of the British Empire, they must have absolute freedom of movement in the Empire just as Canadians, Australians, New Zealanders or South Africans have.

The Difference.

While they are still talking in India of effecting economies and retrenchments in the costliest administration in the world, it is interesting to know that in countries independent of the control of the British bureaucracy, there is less talk and more action. We pointed out some time ago how in Free Ireland, the salary of a Minister barely amounts to £500 a year and only the minimum number of Ministers is appointed; in India, on the contrary, the Government have always displayed an extraordinary love for pomp and show, and the impoverished public exchequer is saddled with more Ministers and Executive Councillors drawing ten and fifteen times the salary of a Free Ireland Minister, and enjoying the luxury of special secretariats. Special allowances, such as "Personal," "Travelling," "Horse," "House-rent," and the like for the already fat-salaried members of Government and their staff are the order of the day and long-winded resolutions and oratorical efforts of gubernatorial personages lack even the promise of performance. Incubations of committees turn out to be abortive, or prove in the end a case of "Mountain in labour." Things would be far different, as in Egypt, if Indian Government were Indian, both in name and in fact, and actuated by the same sense of responsibility to the people as in other constitutionally-governed countries. A Cairo telegram announced yesterday that the Council of Ministers in Egypt had approved a cut of 20 per cent. in special allowances to Government officials and not long ago Sarwaat Pasha declined to admit, at the instance of the British Plenipotentiary to the Court of King Faud, any special claims on State funds of British officials in the event of risks. In India, things shape themselves according to the whims of the Olympians, for the simple reason that the reformed legislature is a tragic farce.

White Supremacy.

No one who is aware of the deep indignation with which the White settlers of Fiji and East Africa received the Imperial Conference resolution regarding equality of status to the Indians in the Colonies and the Dominions will be surprised at the existence of an anti-Asiatic movement and the passionate vigour with which it is being carried on. The first victims of the smouldering anger, however, were not the Asiatics but the three self-governing Dominions—Australia, New Zealand and Canada—whose representatives sided against General Smuts by "betraying" their White brethren. Mr. Andrews in one of his recent articles thus describes the state of mind of a White settler overcome by pious indignation:—

"Traitors! They are traitors." One European declared to me with flashing eyes: "What right had they got to side with Indians against their own people? No white man ought ever to accept equality with any coloured man, on any terms whatever. Traitors! That's what I call them.—traitors!"

Mr. Andrews proceeds:

"I pointed out to him, how it was only on terms of equality, that India could honourably stay within the Empire. He almost shouted out at me,—"Then let India get out, and have done with it! We've got too many d——n niggers inside the Empire to my thinking. We want a White Empire,—that's what we want."

Lord Reading's Silence.

Soon after the Imperial Conference resolution, an agitation was set on foot by the White settlers both in East Africa and Fiji. This agitation received a considerable impetus by the mischievous utterance of Mr. Churchill. The Fiji Capitalists, who are out for the exploitation of Indian Labour, saw all their prospects doomed if equality of status of Indians was recognised. It was revolting to them to sit by the side of an Indian "coolie" in Municipal Councils or Legislative Assemblies. The Indians were intended to be the hewers of wood and drawers of water and serfdom was the badge of their tribe. The Europeans in Fiji, therefore, who were all the while clamouring for more and more of democratic rights, were prepared to forego the principle of election and go back to the system of nomination rather than enfranchise the Indian and share equal rights with him. The device of introducing cheap Chinese labour in place of Indian labour was one of the alternatives suggested and found favour with the Fiji Europeans. But neither a grateful recognition of past services of the Indian labourers to which the Whites owe their prosperity or the promise by which the Colonial Office was bound to respect the equality of status embodied in the Imperial Conference resolution could influence them to respect the rights of Indians in Fiji. The Whites knew too well that with the grant of equality they would be compelled to surrender their privilege of exploitation. "The great Company could not run without cheap Indian labour and labour cannot remain cheap with equality of status." This, as Mr. Manilal says, is, in fact, the one and only cause why a hue and cry has been raised against the recognition of the rights of equality. The question that readily suggests to everyone is: How is the Colonial office going to fulfil its obligations"? No one has inflicted a greater injury to the rights of Indians abroad, since the passing of the Imperial Conference resolution, than Mr. Churchill by the unwise and violent speech he made in a desperate anxiety to placate the White settlers in Kenya. Indians believe that it is the policy of the Colonial Office which is responsible for all the trouble in the Colonies which are under its direct administration. The Government of India should, therefore, shoulder the responsibility, as Mr. Polak suggested the other day, of inquiring categoyically what the Colonial Office has done to ensure that effect is given to the doctrine of equality of citizenship in every Colony controlled by Mr. Churchill's Department. Why is Lord Reading silent on this matter?

Political Prisoners.

Replying to Col. Wedgwood, Lord Winterton stated that the Indian Government hoped very shortly to communicate the total number of those imprisoned in India for political offences. He "considered it most unlikely that the number would exceed four thousand and not twenty thousand as recently suggested." Lord Winterton evidently spoke on the strength of information tentatively supplied to him from authorities in India. The latter are naturally anxious to represent the figure to be as low as possible so that the British public may not be shocked, that is, if it is capable of being shocked, by the extent and intensity of the campaign of repression. And nothing is easier than to manipulate figures. For example, are not there, according to Mr. Hayward, no "political" prisoners in this Presidency?

The Law Member.

The announcement is made that Dr. Sapru has tendered his resignation as Law Member for reasons of health. The country has learnt the news with regret that the stay in Simla has damaged his health which, we trust, will soon improve. For the rest, the announcement will not be received with great interest by the public, for Dr. Sapru's tenure of office has been lamentably disappointing and the country had learnt to except little from him. For, at the psychological moment, Dr. Sapru, with his other Indian colleagues, failed the country. Rumour says Dr. Sapru will be succeeded by an English lawyer and the third Indian member of the Executive Council will be Mr. A. C. Chatterji, who will succeed Sir William Vincent as Home Member.

RIGHTS OF INDIA

LABOUR PARTY'S SUPPORT.

SETTLEMENT WITH TURKEY URGED.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

LONDON, June 29.

The Labour Party Conference in Edinburgh has passed a resolution approving of the Labour Party's support of the Government of India Act, and urging the Party to support any further legislation in the direction of securing for people of India the same measure of Self-Government as the Dominions.

The resolution, also urged the Party to press the Government to help forward a settlement with Turkey with the object of giving Turkey the control of her own territories, with the guarantee that Turkey would deal justly with the people of other nationalities residing within the sphere of her Government.

BRITISH COMMUNISTS' REQUEST FOR AFFILIATION

REJECTED BY NATIONAL LABOUR CONFERENCE.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

LONDON, June 28.

The National Labour Conference, at Edinburgh rejected the application of the Communist Party for affiliation to the Labour Party by card votes of 3,08,60,00 against 261000.

Mr. Frank Hodges said the British Communists were intellectual slaves of Moscow, and it was impossible for the British race to accept, unchallenged, the decrees of any dictator.

The Conference unanimously passed an urgent resolution demanding fair treatment in the trail of Social Revolutionaries in Russia.

GOVT. OF INDIA ACT RULES

APPLICATION TO BURMA.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

LONDON, June 28.

In the House of Lords, Lord Peel moved a resolution applying to Burma the rules of the Government of India Act constituting Burma a Governor's province. In moving the resolution Lord Peel declared that all competent persons were much impressed with the extent of the development of political self-consciousness in Burma in recent years. He hoped that the members of the Civil Service would not be in a hurry to take advantage of the new proportionate pensions, but would lend their great services and training, for some time at least, in order to do their best to work the new constitution which was being set up in Buma.

SEPARATION OF BURMA FROM INDIA.

Lord Sydenham, while conceding the capability of Burmese women, contrasted the fact that they were given the vote at the age of eighteen, whereas women in Britain did not get the vote until they were thirty. He considered it dangerous to make Forestry a transferred subject, and regretted that under the rules they were not separating Burma from India.

The house agreed to the resolution.

RETRENCHMENT SCHEME.

2,400 INDIAN ARMY OFFICERS AFFECTED.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

LONDON, June 28.

London.—In the House of Commons, Lord Winterton, replying to Col. Sir Arthur Holbrook, estimated that 2400 Indian Army Officers would come under the retrenchment scheme. The selection was wholly in the hands of the military authorities in India, who would consider personal circumstances as far as was consistent with the paramount interests of the service and justice to all parties.

EMPIRE EXHIBITION.

INDIA TO PARTICIPATE.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

LONDON, June 28.

Sir William Meyer presided over a large meeting of merchants and others in the City, when on the motion of Sir Marshall Reid it was unanimously resolved to support India's participation in the British Empire Exhibition.

Sir William assented to the proposal to form a committee, comprising officials and non-officials and Indian industrialists to further the project in Britain and to consult the Government of India regarding the appointment of a whole-time Secretary which the meeting considered desirable. Sir William emphasised that the control of policy must necessarily come from India, but active co-operation, both official and non-official, was necessary in London to ensure success. Burma should have a distinct building and representation.

Other speakers were Sir Charles McLeod and Sir Frank Carter. The latter said the exhibition would universally demonstrate India's great progress and help towards a general appreciation of her aspirations for Dominion status.

CALL TO CITIZENS.

"DEFEND THE REPUBLIC"

PROCLAMATION FROM FOURCOURTS.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

LONDON, June 29.

The situation in Dublin can be compared with the Eastern rebellion of 1916. The messages from Dublin after the midnight 28th-29th June state that the fighting continues and the Free State troops have completely surrounded the Fourcourts.

The Irregulars were driven out of the Fowler Hall and took up fresh positions.

A proclamation was issued from the Fourcourts last night to the following effect:—

"The republic is fighting for its life. Citizens defend the Republic! Enemy is the old enemy, England . . . Mr. Churchill has cracked his whip and ordered the Provisional Government to attack the Fourcourts. His Free State agents have obeyed. Shame on them! The Republicans will defend the Republic to the death."

REPUBLICAN OUTBREAKS.

It is stated that the Industrial Workers of the World or Communists, who have a hall behind the Fowler Hall, are co-operating with the Irregulars and have fortified their hall. It is reported that the Republican outbreaks have occurred in various places in South Ireland. Evidently the Provisional Government is about to take drastic steps to end the raids by the Irregulars on the Donegal border. There is a large concentration of the Free State troops at Buncrana. Major-General McKeown has arrived at Drumdoe Castle, the Headquarters of the Regular Irish troops in that district.

RESPONSIBILITY FOR IRISH SITUATION.

DE VALERA'S STATEMENT.

Mr. De Valera has issued a statement in which he declares that England's threat of war is alone responsible for the present situation in Dublin. Men who are now being attacked by the Provsional Government's forces preferred to die rather than to yield to the threat. They are the best and the bravest of the Irish nation, and would have most loyally obeyed the will of the Irish people if freely expressed, but they were unwilling that Ireland's independence should be abandoned under the lash of the Alien Government.

REINFORCEMENTS FOR O'CONNOR.

GOVT. PRECAUTIONS.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

LONDON, June 28.

The Free State troops occasionally fired eighteen-pounders using high explosive shells in preference to the common shells in order to prevent fire. They made several breaches in the walls. The fire in Fowler Hall was extinguished by firemen in the course of the afternoon. Considerable bombing is taking place in the rear of Fourcourts where a diversion by the sympathisers of the Republicans is feared.

Elaborate precautions to prevent reinforcements reaching General O'Connor have been taken. All arrivals in Dublin are searched for arms which are confiscated. The regular I. R. A. troops have been summoned from the County to reinforce Dublin.

Three I. R. A. soldiers from the Mullingar contingent have been arrested for refusing to fight.

CASUALTIES.

LATER.

Fighting continued throughout the day. Telephones are closed down. The Regulars sustained six casualties in the course of two ambushes. Sniping is extending and a number of civilians have been killed by stray bullets.

A message from General O'Connor in Fourcourts, this afternoon, says amongst other things: "The boys are glorious and will fight for the Republic to the end. Three casualties so far, all slight."

FOURCOURTS SHELLED.

IRREGULARS' RETREAT.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

LONDON, June 28.

The fighting for the possession of Fourcourts was preceded by investment operations directed by General Ennis commanding the Eastern Division. At 3-30, this morning, a surrender was demanded of the Irregulars within half an hour. As no reply was received an armoured car then passed in front of the building and the garrison fired upon it, whereupon an eighteen-pounder, mounted on another armoured car, shelled Fourcourts. A hot exchange of rifle firing developed, and was accompanied by the shelling from two eighteen-pounders. Both sides used machine-guns freely.

IRREGULARS' RETREAT.

At noon, the battle was continuing with undiminished vigour, and the Irregulars, by this hour, had retreated to the rear of Fourcourts hiding in cellars. At two in the afternoon, when Fowler Hall was on fire, the attacking party restrained their firing in order to save the Fourcourts building from destruction.

The Provisional Government forces' casualties were few.

The city, generally, is undisturbed, and business is proceeding outside the battle-zone. The crowds watching the fighting suffered for their curiosity, for at least three civilians, including one woman, were killed.

ANXIETY TO SAVE FREECOURTS BUILDING.

TACTICS OF INSURGENT GARRISON.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

LONDON, June 28.

Fourcourts in Dublin which were seized by the Irish Irregulars, on April 4th, and converted into their Headquarters, contain priceless National records, and the desire of the Free State authorities to save the building's contents from destruction, probably explains why the news of the capture or the surrender of the rebels, which was expected this afternoon, had not been received in London by six in the evening.

Official information from Dublin does not confirm the earlier reports that the dome of the Fourcourts building had been destroyed. Machine-guns and rifles are mainly being used by the Free State forces who are anxious to compel the rebels to surrender and do not contemplate an assault on the building.

The casualties hitherto are few.

The insurgent garrison is estimated to number three hundred men, who are cleverly concealed and are sniping from windows and roofs.

EVENTS BEFORE THE ACTION.

PROVISIONAL GOVERNMENT'S STATEMENT.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

LONDON, June 28.

The Provisional Government, in a statement issued this afternoon, decsribes the events preceding the "action now being taken to protect and secure the people of Ireland against further molestation and interference in their liberties." It says that two Dublin firms, on June 24th, received demands made in the name of a leader of the Irregulars, illegally occupying the Law Courts to pay certain sums by June 27th, under the pretext of the unauthorised Belfast boycott. The Government arranged to arrest anyone attempting the extortion, and ordered the troops to protect the firm which was raided forty-eight hours later. The raiders were arrested and put in [illegible] jail. This warning to lawless and irresponsible people that the Government [illegible] with an emphatic mandate of people, would, no longer, tolerate an interference with their liberty and property, was not merely unheeded but insolently defied."

SEIZURE OF GENL. O'CONNELL.

The Provisional Government describes the seizure and imprisonment of General O'Connell in Fourcourts and adds: "Against this direct challenge to its authority, the Government ordered the army into action, and troops this morning surrounded the Law Courts and demanded the evacuation of the buildings and the surrender of munitions and property held therein. A time-limit was given, but the demand was ignored. At the same time, Fowler Hall, which was the centre of direction for the seizure of private property, was invested. The statement that the British troops are co-operating with the I. R. A. is false and malicious. Only the Irish forces, in co-operation with the citizens who are loyally and enthusiastically supporting the Government, are engaged in putting down the disorderly elements who attempt to tyrannise the people and defy their will."

The machine-gun and artillery fire was still proceeding in Dublin at 6-30 this evening. The Provisional Government has imposed censorship on telegraphic messages.

GARRISONS' REFUSAL TO SURRENDER.

HEAVY CASUALTIES.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

LONDON, June 28.

An attack was first launched against the Fowler Memorial Hall General O'Connor's subsidiary headquarters. The garrisons of the hall and of the Fourcourts refused to surrender and resisted vigorously. Thousands of the Regular Free State troops are engaged. They have used trench mortars and have destroyed the copper domes and [illegible] of the Fourcourts.

The machine-gun and rifle fire lasted three to four hours. The vicinity of the battle is cordoned off by the troops, but inhabitants are crowded at street corners out of range. Ambulances are very active. There have been many casualties.

The report of the P. and O. Banking Corporation for the year ended March 31st shews a net profit of 159,300 sterling. Available balance is 166,146, reserve 90,000 dividend five and a half per cent less income tax, and 14,042 is carried forward.

ALLEGED 'ATROCITIES.'

OFFICIAL STATEMENT OF ANGORA.

"UTTERLY WITHOUT FOUNDATION."

[SPECIALLY TRANSLATED FROM THE TURKISH.]

II.

(FROM THE TURKISH PAPER "ANADOLU", OF ADALIA.)

It is so strange that the demand for an Inquiry should be made now, while they themselves are still in a state of war with us and peace has not yet been made, that one would think: 'Either Lord Curzon is himself demented or he thinks us mad. Neither the one nor the other. The object is only to complicate the situation, for the plan on which Lord Curzon relies is so mean, so crooked and so groundless that, in the opinion of an honourable and highly-placed American who knows us and our ways, it is to be regarded as sheer calumny, the product of a base intrigue. Thus England affects to look on us with pious horror, whereas it might as well have occurred to the Powers to institute an inquiry into the condition of the Muslims under the yoke of England's Government. To-day the jails of Hindustan are full of Muslim notables and ulema. In all the various parts of Hindustan a policy of terrorism and repression is in progress. A certain General Dyer hero of the Amritsar massacre is remembered by all India with horror and execration. That every day a number of Muslims are suffering from the oppressive action of the English is an indisputable fact. Their effort is all the more commendable because it is on behalf of the Turkish Khilafat the defender of the faith of all the Muslims. A curtain should not be drawn over this hypocrisy of the English. To-day the English statesmen are very ruthless, very bitter enemies of Islam. That fact must be known to all the Muslims and to all humanity. Therefore we advocate the immediate formation and dispatch of an International Commission of Inquiry to investigate the oppression and humiliation of the world of Islam by England. With reference to the allegations published in the "Times" newspaper of May 16 by a former member of the American Near East Relief Committee and his companions, the Anatolian Agency had recourse to the Ministry of the Interior, and is authorised to issue the following official [illegible]

"Although the Americans as whole have laid us under a debt of gratitude for their humanitarian work in Anatolia, one of their workers Mister Yowell and a few companions were requested by the Government to leave Anatolia on account of their hostility to the Turks and of their working to disseminate disaffection and sedition against us for their private ends. Afterwards they spread all sorts of spiteful, groundless stories and, going to Constantinople, left no stone unturned in order to obtain publicity and official countenance for their inventions, which they obtained eventually from the enemies of Turkish national defence and independence. The English Government and Press regarded Mr. Yowell's statements as a great "find" and at once began to circulate them through the Press of Europe in order to represent the Turks as guilty of crimes unparalleled in the darkest ages of the world, and to embitter the question of Christendom against Islam. The "Times'" correspondent in Constantinople did not hesitate to telegraph these biassed statements at once to his newspaper; and in fact on May 16, 1922, the farrago of mendacity and exaggeration was published; WHEREAS:

(1) The property left behind by Armenians (deported during the war) including Government land has been restored to them, or lands given in exchange, in accordance with the decision of the Grand National Assembly and the laws of the land. There have been no complaints.

(2) The right of Armenians before the law are preserved.

(3) The right of inheritance of Christians has never been assailed in any way. By law they are on a footing of equality with Mussulmans. The records of the courts within the frontiers of the National Government prove this.

(4) Christian males have never been interned or imprisoned without legal cause. The national Government is innocent of these charges.

(5) No Christian women have been made to serve against their will in any Muslim household. Stories of this description are circulated only with the object of lowering the Turks in the eyes of the civilised world.

(6) No proof is to hand that any Muslim official has persecuted Christians to obtain money from them. The Turkish officials are too busy with the work of helping the nation to obtain its goal to indulge in that sort of byplay.

(7) Coming to the Greeks; no law prevents the Turkish National Government which is making an unheard-of effort in defence of national independence against tremendous odds, from defending itself against those who are feloniously plotting an attack from behind. People suspected of such a design have not been left at large, and the sick and feeble have been cared for by the local Governments; and their relatives and the people of the place are allowed intercourse with the deportees, and even to collect money for them, and their families are allowed to send money to these interned Greeks, as the Post office and the Agricultural Bank are in a position to testify. The facts of the situation show that the allegations that our Government is trying to exterminate this element of the population is a lie.

(8) The stories of Christian women being ill-treated by the Government or any Turks, even though they might be under the legitimate suspicion of the National Government, are utterly without foundation. They are so absurd as hardly to seem worth the trouble of denying."

PT. NEHRU'S TOUR.

BAREILLY MERCHANTS' PLEDGE.

NOT TO IMPORT FOREIGN CLOTH.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

KHURJA, June 29.

In the course of his tour in the Province, Pandit Motilal Nehru passed Basti on Sunday night on his way from Gorakhpur to Gonda. He made a short speech to a large concourse of people assembled on the platform advising them to carry out the constructive programme undeterred by the severe repression that was going on in their district. The people were so anxious to hear him that he was not informed of the notice under section 144 prohibiting pubic meetings in Basti District till after he had finished and the train began to move. No notice was served on the Pandit. On Monday he addressed a well attended meeting at Gonda comparing congress inactivities in that district with the peace of death and the quiet of grave and exhorted them to shake off their lethargy and seriously set themselves to the constructive work.

Leaving Gonda the same morning he arrived at Sitapur in the afternoon and received a tremendous ovation at the Railway Station and was conducted in aprocession through the principal streets. The same evening he addressed a gathering of about 6,000 people including about 500 ladies. He congratulated the citizens on the brave stand they made in spite of the official repression committee of the employees of the Court of Wards. The special feature of the Sitapur speech was the exhortation to numbers of legal profession to abide by the noble traditions of the profession and to stand against tyranny and oppression even if they took no part in other non-cooperation activities.

Next morning, he motored into the interior, visiting Bargaon, Kauraya and Laharpur and making enquiries into allegations of oppression by the Court of Ward employees and took notes of statements of both parties. Further progress was impeded by the difficulty of transport and shortness of time. On the following morning Panditji arrived at Bareilly the and the day was spent in conference with a local workers and cloth merchants, who to commemorate his visit, decided to revive the defunct Kapada Sudhar Committee taking pledges not to import foreign cloth until 31st December 1923. In the evening he addressed a meeting of about 6,00 people. In the course of his speech he referred to shooting of constables in Bareilly by some persons unknown and said it was not enough to express their abhorrence but they sould take active steps to purge their city of such dastardly crimes.

SUPPORT TO N. C. O. PROGRAMME.

KHURJA CONFERENCE RESOLUTIONS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

KHURJA, June 29.

The following resolutions were passed by the District Political Conference held at Khurja:—

The first resolution states:—This conference places full faith in non-violent non-co-operation and expects every Indian to carry out the constructive programme laid out at Bardoli and Delhi specially laying stress on the following items.—

(a) unity of all races, (b) use of hand-spun and hand woven khaddar by all respectable Indians and of Charkha by every family, (c) uplifting of the untouchables by trying to associate with them on all possible occasions.

The second resolution expresses deep sorrow at the demise of Babu Avadh Narainlal caused by the criminal neglect and merciless behaviour of the jail authorities which the Government in its communique has tried to whitewash prays for the soul of the deceased and expresses its sympathy with the bereaved family.

The third, too, expresses sorrow at the sad death of Sriyut Lakshmirao of Manoba.

The fourth admires the unparelleled and immortal martyrdom of Pandit Ramraksh which he has attained by giving up his life after ninety days' continuous fast and the fifth congratulates the patriots on their suffering and believes that they would continue to work for the country with unabated enthusiasm until the triple goal is reached.

WASHINGTON TREATIES BILL.

PASSED BY LORDS.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

LONDON, June 28.

The House of Lords have passed the third reading of the Washington Treaties Bill.

STOCK EXCHANGE.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

LONDON, June 28.

On the Stock Exchange to-day there was excellent sentiment due to cheapness of money. The gilt-edges were buoyant, notably the Indian and colonial issues. The Indian five and a half per cent loan stood at one and one-eighth premium, which indicates a large amount left to the underwrites has been found a permanent home. Considering the many political uncertainties of the present economic conditions of Europe, the firmness of prices is remarkable. Rubber shares were very active and showed a general advance.

CONGRESS WORK IN GUJARAT.

GENERAL AWAKENING.

PROPAGANDA TOUR IN DISTRICTS.

(Associated Press.)

AHMEDABAD, June 29.

According to the programme recently framed at Navsari, the Non-co-operationist leaders of Gujarat have finished work in the Surat District and now they will go to Kaira District. They visit almost every village and enlist members for the Congress, collect money for the Tilak Swaraj Fund and preach the gospel of Khaddar.

Women in marriage processions are singing songs calling upon Mahatma Gandhi to come out of jail with Swaraj at an early date.

"DEMOCRACY THE FUNDAMENTAL BASIS."

MR. SASTRI ON LEAGUE OF NATIONS' CONSTITUTION.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

LONDON, June 29.

Melbourne.—Mr. Sastri, to-day, lectured under the auspices of the Victorian Branch of the League of Nations Union. He said it was not generally recognised that the fundamental basis of the League's constitution was democracy. A great obstacle against its continued success was scepticism still prevailing in high quarters regarding its real utility. He defended equal voting because in international matters the affairs of a little State, when in jeopardy, were of as tender a concern as those of a big State.

INDIA UNDER THE AEGIS OF BRITAIN.

MR. SASTRI ON UNACHIEVED "GREAT PURPOSES."

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

LONDON, June 29.

Melbourne.—At a luncheon by the Rotary Club, Mr. Sastri reviewed the history of the Servants of India Society. He said that Providence had ordained that India should pass under the protection of Great Britain for some great purposes, some of which had been realised, but others of greater consequence still remained to be achieved.

They are holding them all to ransom. They also stole over a quarter of a million dollars worth of property.

A vigorous Government campaign has been ordered against the bandits.

TRAMWAY FARES.

CAN SHAREHOLDERS VOTE?

HEATED DISCUSSION IN CORPORATION.

A meeting of the Municipal Corporation was held yesterday, Mr. M. A. M. Khan presiding. The motion brought forward by Dr. Nariman prohibiting members of the Corporation, who might be shareholders of the Tramway Company, from taking part in the discussion of proposition No. 108 regarding the revision of Tramway Company's fares was discussed for a long time. An amendment was brought forward, to this proposition, asking for two senior Counsel's opinion in the matter. A good deal of discussion took place and at times the meeting was almost rowdy, owing to the attitude of a large number of members who thought there was no harm in voting on the question when it came for discussion. Dr. Vegas, who spoke boldly, was much interrupted by some members. Ultimately both the proposition and amendment were thrown out, and the result of the discussion was nil.

Dr. R. T. Nariman moved:—"That the Municipal Secretary be requested to circulate to the Councillors Counsel's opinion regarding the scope of Section 36 (p) of the Municipal Act and the preclusion of Councillors having an interest in a Company as shareholders or otherwise from voting or taking part in the discussion of a matter in any way materially affecting the Company (underlying Corporation Resolution No. 3551, dated the 21st July 1921) and to ascertain from Councillors and report to the Corporation the names of Councillors holding shares of or having any other interest in the Bombay Electric Supply and Tramways Co.

Mr. Haveliwalla said the resolution showed bad taste and things should not be allowed to be carried too far.

The President said there was no objection to moving it and it was for the Corporation either to reject it or accept it. The President said Counsel's opinion had already been taken in the matter and Mr. Campbell had said that persons holding shares in the Tramway Company would be disqualified from voting or taking part in the discussion on item No. 108. He himself held some shares and he had no wish to take part in the discussion.

Dr. Nariman then moved the proposition.

Mr. B. N. Motiwalla seconded.

"CORPORATION ABOVE PETTY CONSIDERATIONS."

Mr. P. J. Marzban said the members of the Corporation were certainly above such pitty consideration. Fifty per cent. of the members held shares and if they were not allowed to take part there would be no quorum at all. The result of the adoption of this proposition would be that members would transfer their shares to the names of their wives and children. He moved an amendment that the opinion of the Advocate-General and another Counsel should be taken on the matter and that discussion of item No. 108 be postponed.

Mr. J. B. Boman Behram seconded. They would have to depend he said on the opinion of a minority if the shareholders were disqualified. He disagreed with Mr. Campbell's opinion.

Mr. N. M. Joshi did not see the utility of sending for another Counsel's opinion. Who was to decide finally whether they should vote or not? It was in their own hands either to vote or not. The principle underlying the question was very good, and they as human beings were liable to be swayed by their personal interests. He supported the proposition.

Dr. A. G. Viegas said after the President's statement that he was not going to take part in the discussion, he wanted to know whose money they were going to pay the Consel. Was that taxpayers' money or their own? After the President's ruling he did not think it was necessary to spend more money. The Company was a powerful Corporation and he had brought a motion in the Corporation when the Company wanted permission to transfer its office to Bombay that the permission should not be granted.

Mr. Haveliwalla raised a point of order whether the speech was in order.

The President said if Mr. Haveliwalla would have a little patience to hear the next few sentences he would find out whether Dr. Viegas was in order or not.

Continuing, said Dr. Viegas that some members of the Corporation wanted to be patronised by the Company!

At this stage Dr. Viegas was constantly interrupted by some of the members and was not allowed to speak.

Dr. Viegas said he would not be cowed down by those interruptions. They showed which way the wind blowed and he would persist in his speech and in the expression of his opinions.

Dr. K. E. Dadachanji said Mr. Campbell's opinion was not accepted by the Corporation and they should have the joint opinion of two counsels to make the matter doubly sure. There was waste of Municipal money every day, and it did not matter if they spent a little more money now.

LAYMAN'S POINT OF VIEW.

The Hon. Mr. Pheroze C. Sethna said it was a waste of money to ask for counsel's opinion again, as the Municipal Act, laid it down clearly that a shareholder of the Tramway Company could not vote. That was a layman's point of view. Even according to the House of Commons rules people having personal interests were precluded from voting on such a question, although they could speak. He, however thought the question was a complicated one and transfer of shares was a costly affair in these days of enhanced stamp duties. He thought the best thing was to depend on the good sense of the members.

Mr. J. B. Petit said from his reading of the Municipal Act he did not think they could be disqualified from voting. However, it was a doubtful matter and they should have the opinion of Counsel. To-morrow they might be precluded from voting in matters concerning the interests of the Port Trust or the Improvement Trust, simply because they held a few debentures.

Mr. K. F. Nariman opposed the amendment. Counsel's opinion could only be taken if the President was in doubt about a point of procedure. But the President had no doubt and as he was not in doubt, the matter rested ultimately in his hands. No useful purpose would be, he thought, served by taking Counsel's opinion again. In the sharebazar they were waiting for their decision on this question, and the shares would go up on their decision. He thought it was a matter in which their personal interests were concerned and they should, therefore, retire gracefully, as they were human beings after all.

Dr. M. C. Javle said they had always voted according to their conscience and were never swayed by their personal interests, simply because they had a few shares.

Mr. J. Baptista said in Parliament whenever members had any interest in a Company they declined to vote. Sir Ibrahim refused to take part in such a discussion, but Sir Sassoon always voted. (Laughter).

They wanted to have not a junior Counsel's opinion, but a senior's opinion. He supported the amendment.

Dr. Dadachanji: Have you got any shares?

Mr. Baptista: I have never had the money to buy the shares.

Continuing he said there was no harm in taking Counsel's opinion.

MUNICIPAL COMMISSIONER'S VIEWS.

The Municipal Commissioner said according to the law the shareholders were precluded from voting and it was no use taking further opinion.

Mr. S. K. Bole agreed with the Commissioner's opinion.

Mr. H. P. Mody said the President had already given his opinion in the matter and the question must be left to the honour of the members themselves. The original proposition must be thrown out.

Mr. W. T. Hallai said the proposition should be passed.

The amendment was then put to vote and it was defeated by 13 voting for and 23 voting against. The proposition was then put to vote and 16 voted for and 21 against and was, thus, thrown out. A poll was demanded and the result of it was 17 voted for and 20 members voted against. So both the proposition and the amendment were thrown out.

The Corporation then adjourned to Monday next.

FRONTIER COMMITTEE.

NON-OFFICIAL WITNESSES IN FAVOUR OF AMALGAMATION.

(Associated Press.)

SIMLA, June 28.

The Froneier Committee concluded the taking of evidence to-day with the examination of the last batch of non-official witnesses from the Punjab, which included Raja Narendra Nath and Dr. Manohar Lal. Except Nawab Atta Muhammad [illegible] in favour of the amalgamation of the settled districts of the Frontier with the Punjab and saw no insuperable difficulty either in the way of financial adjustment with the Government of India or in the matter of communal representation in the Punjab Legislature. The Committee will reasemble in Simla to write their report shortly before the September session of the Indian Legislature.

SOWING DISCORD AMONG MUSLIMS.

A FRESH INTRIGUE.

The Central Khilafat Committee has issued the following:—

We have received an authoritative information from Paris which tells a most interesting little story of anti-Turkish propaganda in the making. We quote:—

From certain information received by our general staff, it appears that the Turkish political party of Constantinpole known as "Entente Liberable" infamous for its many betrayals of the cause of Turkey and Islam is preparing under the orders of the enemies of Islam yet another action against the country and the Muslim world. Under the instigation of its Chiefs, Diamad Ferid, Ali Kemal, Mehemed Ali, the "Entente Liberale" party proposes to publish in Egypt a work entitle. "The Khilafat and Anatol'a" in which they will try to make it believe that the national Government of Angora is the enemy of the Khalifa and is pursuing a policy contrary to the interest of the Khalifa and of Islam. The end in view is pretty clear; to sow discord among the Mussalmans. It is as important to unmask the internal as the external enemy. The Entente Liberale is known to you. Also I have no need to insist on the odious nature of that institution. Suffice it to recall to you that it was a member of that party who dared declare to journalists when he was Minster of Justice in Damad Ferid's Cabinet:

"We acknowledge no sentiment of hostility against the Greek army for it is working after all for the good of the Constantipole Government."

I thought it necessary to give you these details which are not unimportant in order that with he high authority which your Mission confers on youd, you may be in a position when the above mentioned work is published to tell our valiant Muslim brethren the thruth concerning it. When, as will doubtless happen in a few week's time, the reactionary papers in India and Mr. T. P. O' Conner in England refer to the promised book as though it were their scriptures we will recall this forecast.

PRELIMINARY SCIENTIFIC EXAMINATION.

ABOLISHED BY UNIVERSITY.

A meeting of the Senate of the Bombay University was held on Thursday evening, at the Sir Cowasji Jehangir Hall of the University, when the Hon. Sir Chimanlal Setalvad, the Vice-Chancellor presided Inter alia the Senat gave consideration to the abolition of the Preliminary Scientific Examination. In moving a resolution to that effect Dr. Ranina referred to the disappointment of various students who after passing the Preliminary Scientific Examination were refused admission to the Grant Medical College. Several members spoke on the proposition which was eventually passed.

The Senate gave consideration to the following resolution:—

"That the following gentlemen be elected members of the University Board of Accounts for the ensuing financial year:—

1. Mr. K. Subramani Aiyar.
2. Professor D. D. Kapadia.
3. Principal M. L. Tannan."

PRELIMINARY SCIENTIFIC EXAMINATION.

The Senate, next gave consideration to the following resolution moved by Dr. R. N. Ramina.

A proposal to abolish the Preliminary Scientific Examination for the M.B., B.S. Degrees and make the Intermediate Examination in Science in Group D. (Physics, Chemistry and Biology) the only Examination qualifying a student for admission to the second year of the medical course. (1) That the Preliminary Scientific Examination be held for the last time in October 1923, the regulations relating to the Examination published at pages 196-98 of the current Calendar be deleted from that date, and the regulations immediately following renumbered accordingly:

(2) that the words "the First or Preliminary Scientific Examination, or" occurring in regulation 17 (a) (page 198 of the Calendar) be deleted altogether and the words "Intermediate Examination in Science in the D. Group" substituted for the words "First or Preliminary Scientific Examination" wherever they occur in regulations 1, 2 and 3 (page 195);

(3) that the words "Intermediate and Final Examinations" be substituted for the words "All the Examinations" in regulation 5 (page 195 of the Calendar); and

(4) that students who fail in the Preliminary Scientific Examinations to be held in the year 1923 be permitted to appear at the Intermediate Science Examination in the "D" Group without being required to produce certificates of attendance at a Collage recognized for the latter examination.

Dr. R. N. Ranina in moving the above resolution said that it was a matter of pity that students after passing the Preliminary Scientific Examination found great difficulty in seeking admission to the Grant Medical College. The students tried their best to get admission into the Medical College but were being disappointed. In the year 1920 exactly the same thing happened and the students were disappointed. At that time the Syndicate interfered in the matter. He had his sympathy for those students who had been now refused admission by the College and he hoped the Senate would do something in the matter with a view to remove the present difficulties of students. The question of abolishing the Preliminary Scientific Examination was referred to the Principals of various Colleges and it was unanimously suggested that the examination in question should be done away with and the students be allowed to appear for the Intermediate Science Examination instead.

Prof. Kamtkar seconded the resolution

Prof. Hemley spoke in favour of raising the standard of medical education by abolishing the Preliminary Scientific Examination.

Dr. R. Rao was also of the same opinion as Prof. Hemley.

Dr. Masina also spoke.

Major Higham, the Dean of the Grant Medical College, next rose to deliver a speech but was quite inaudible at the Press table. He was understood to have said in answer to a question put by Principal Mackenzi that the B. Sc. Students would not be given preference for admission in the Grant Medical College. He also said that the present Inter Science Course was a top heavy one.

Dr. Sir Temulji Nariman said that the General Medical Council had insisted upon having the higher standard of medical education from the year 1923 and they were going to have that standard.

Principal Father Blatter also spoke.

After some further discussion on the resolution, it was put to the vote and declared carried.

RAJARAM COLLEGE.

Consideration was given to an application from the Secretary, Arya Educational Board, Kolhapur, for the affiliation of the Rajaram College, Kolhapur, for the Pass and Honours courses in certain subjects for the B.A., Degree, and the report of the Committee appointed to make the local inquiry prescribed by the Indian Universities Act. After some discussion the College was raised to a complete first grade one.

SIND NATIONAL COLLEGE, HYDERABAD.

Consideration was given to an application from the Principal, Sind National College, Hyderabad, for affiliation as a second grade College for the courses of study prescribed for the First Year and Intermediate Examinations in Arts, and the report of the Committee appointed by the Syndicate to make the local inquiry prescribed by the Indian Universities Act.

Dr. Harold H. Mann moved as recommended by the Syndicate—

"That the Senate records its opinion that the Sind National College, Hyderabad, be affiliated to the University as a second grade College teaching up to the standard of the First Year and intermediate Examinations in Arts, subject to the following conditions:—

(1) That the affiliation be provisional for a period of two years from the 20th of June 1922.

(2) That within a month after the affiliation is granted, a governing body be constituted and the names of the members communicated to the Syndicate.

(3) That an annual income of Rs. 6,000, including the Rs. 3,500 derivable from the 3½ per cent. Government Paper of the face value of Rs. 1,00,000 offered by the Trustee of the Divan Metharam Dharmada Trust, from permanent endowments be guaranteed.

(4) That an adequate and adequately qualified staff (consisting of a Professor of English, a Professor of Persian, a Professor and an Assistant Professor of Mathematics, a Professor of Physics, a Professor of History and English, a Professor of Logic and English) be appointed and their names and qualifications communicated to the Syndicate within a month after the affiliation is granted.

(5) That a sum of at least Rs. 3,000 be spent on books for the Library and the books be actually obtained before the end of the first term.

(6) That an adequate Physics Laboratory for the First Year's course be provided within the first term.

(7) That the fees be not less than those charged by the D. J. Sind College.

(8) That the number of students be limited to a maximum of 100 in the First Year Class and 60 in the Intermediary Class."

Dr. Mann in moving the resolution said that he had visited the Sind National College, Hyderabad some two or three years ago and was very much impressed by the enthusiasm, and eagerness with which it was conducted. Although at that time the Sind College had not thought of having anything to do with the Bombay University. However, he thought, the time had arrived when the College should be affiliated to the Bombay University as a Second Grade College, teaching up to the standard of the First Year and Intermediate Examinations in arts.

While the discussion was proceeding Sham-sul-olma Dr. J. J. Modi moved for an adjournment of the Senate Meeting as it was getting late till to-day which was ultimately agreed to. The Senate, therefore, adjourned till to-day at 5-45 j.m.

RUBBER INDUSTRY IN DUTCH INDIES.

(Reuter's Telegram.)

LONDON, June 28.

The decision of the Hague International Association, for rubber cultivation in the Dutch Indies, is regarded as of vital importance. In the British circles, it is hoped that in view of a large majority being in favour of action, the Dutch Government will join the British Government in enforcing the plan to put the industry on a sound basis.

sible for the good of the country.

It was also decided that Indian journalists serving on Anglo-Indian papers might also be admitted as members of this Association. The objects of the Association take my breath away. It is a strange phenomenon that the promoters of the Association include such diverse personalities as the editors of the "Servant" and the "Patrika" and the Editor-in-Chief (nothing short of it will do) of the "Bengalee." To promote friendship among them—ahem—they are perspiring with a scheme of unity. Those who remember the ceremony of laying the foundation of friendship between Sir (then simple Babu) Surendranath Banerjea and Babu Motilal Ghosh by kissing each other at a Town Hall meeting should be prepared for dramatic developments of friendship made through misfits. With the second object I have no quarrel, it has an tye also on the main chance. But to take concerted action where possible for the good of the country is a huge joke. But, of course, the words "where possible" mitigate the audacity of the statement. Just fancy the "Bengalee" and the "Servant" taking concerted action for the good of the country. They can do so only when they would blame the monsoon. Then take the "Basumati" and the "Nayak." They will agree only in one thing, viz., that each of them has got the largest circulation. By the by, these newly-fledged friends are not all on speaking terms. But perhaps they will nurture their friendship in silence, often more eloquent than speech.

CALCUTTA LETTER

SHIFT AS POLICY

MODERATES BUSY

JOURNALISTS' LEAGUE.

(From our Correspondent.)

CALCUTTA, June 20.

In my previous letter I referred to the serious illness in jail of Mr. Wazedali Khan Panee. His condition gave cause for serious anxiety for some time, but he has been making slow progress towards recovery since Sunday last. But while we have better news of Panee Saheb the health of Maulana Abul Kalam Azad has been of late far from satisfactory. It is well-known that the Maulana had been in indifferent health even before his trial began; and since his imprisonment disorder of the bowels has been his daily complaint and he has been daily thinning away. Babu Shamsundar Chakravarty has been suffering from sore-throat, Mr. C. R. Das is the only leader in jail who is now free from illness.

Policy of shift.

After their return from Lucknow the Bengal delegates have shown little activities to push on the constructive programme of the Congress. It may be said that the intervening period has been all too short for widespread operations, but there is a regrettable tendency towards a policy of shift which we so vehemently condemn in the bureaucracy. Bogra deferred action pending the decision at Chittagong. Chittagong waited to see what happened at Mymensingh. Mymensingh looked for a lead from Calcutta. Calcutta depended on Lucknow and they now look upon the All-India Congress Committee as the dictator. It is natural that doubt and despair would seize the average man. There is a lamentable lack of concerted action, of organised efforts to carry on the propaganda. Individual action like that of P. C. Roy, J. M. Sen Gupta, Profulla Ghosh may bring about results beyond our most sanguine expectations. But it should not be forgotten that the Bengal Congress Committee has a vast territory to deal with and nothing but a well-disciplined and well-guided organisation can complete the Khaddar programme. Popular enthusiasm in the cause is not wanting. The refusal of sanction to civil disobedience might have chilled the ardent spirit for the time being. But it has only to be diverted to the right channel and Young Bengal may well be depended upon to honourably acquit itself. Who is to do it? That is the crux of the whole thing. It is feared that Bengal will have to go on as at present until Mr. C. R. Das comes back to lead her on to fulfil her obligations to the nation. It will be the saddest day for the country if so much popular zeal and popular enthusiasm go in vain by default.

Moderates active

The Citizens' Protection League, in the meanwhile, is stealing a march on us. The promoters with their guilty conscience have not had the courage to expose themselves to the gaze of the public, but they are carrying on their own propaganda stealthily but insistently by distributing broadcast pamphlets and leaflets of various descriptions. They have now found out the folly of directly condemning the Non-Cooperation movement for people regard them with the contempt they deserve. But lately they have resorted to a clever ruse. Appearing in the garb of philanthropists they aim their blunt axe at the root of the Non-Cooperation movement. Mr. N. N. Sircar (may his shadow never grow less!) in a recent interview said:—"It is not possible in a very short compass to state the detail of the propaganda work of the League. The League does not believe in mere political harangues or abuse of people who entertain views different from its own. The method principally adopted for weaning people from an attitude of unreasoning hatred to the authorities, and to the Englishman per se has been to give people healthy occupation for improving their own condition. Although as has been stated the League is only three months old, it has arranged for—(a) Dispensaries at four villages, (b) Fifty primary schools, (c) Tube wells at various villages." Mr. Sircar and men of his ilk believe that what they regard as the reaction in the course of the Non-Cooperation movement is due to the activities of the League. I would not grudge them the self-adolation if it were true. It will not be long when these "patriotic" sons of Bengal will, like the proverbial fool, laugh thrice at their own cost. The fool, says the story, laughed thrice. First, he laughed without knowing what he was laughing at. Secondly, he laughs knowing what it was; and, thirdly, he laughs thinking that he laughed without knowing what he laughed at. But when men of the thrice laughing variety have rushed in it was highly inexpedient to let some of their atrociously malicious statements against non-cooperators go unchallenged. It is time that the Congress Party gathered their forces and began their constructive programme. Once they make the start in an organised form and our philanthropists realise that they cannot check Non-Cooperation, the Tube-wells will refuse to sink and night schools will vanish in the darkness of the night.

The latest craze in Calcutta has been the formation of a Press Association. On Sunday last, at the Indian Association, was held a preliminary meeting of some Indian journalists for the purpose of organising an Association to guard the interests of the profession to which they belong. They are apparently ignorant of the existence of the Press Association of India. It was resolved that an Association of Indian journalists, who exercise their profession in Bengal be formed under the name and style of "Indian Journalists' Association" with the following, among other, objects:—

(1) To promote friendship and good-will among journalists;

GIRGAUM DISTRICT CONGRESS COMMITTEE.

To the Editor of "The Chronicle."

Sir,—I cannot understand the attitude of the Girgaum District Congress Committee which forces Mr. Jayaker to resign from the presidentship and says nothing about Mr. Natarajan, the Vice-President. When Mr. Natarajan joined the Congress it was felt that he had repented of his past activities and that he would wholeheartedly work out Mahatma Gandhi's programme. Instead of this, however, it now appears that it was merely a tactical move on the part of Mr. Natarajan to join the Congress. From his articles in the "Social Reformer" it is clear that he still adheres to his anti-non-cooperation views. It will be remembered that just after Mahatma Gandhi started his non-cooperation movement in April 1919, Mr. Natarajan, in company with Sir Narayan Chandavarkar, Sir Gokuldas Parekh, Mr. Jamnadas Dwarkadas and a few others, issued a manifesto against non-cooperation. Now after joining the Congress Mr. Natarajan's attitude is just the same. "Enter the Councils," he urges, "no more non-cooperation" and the fact that he is quoted every week by "New India" with a pat on his back should open the eyes of our right-minded patriots who are members of the Girgaum District Congress Committee and make them realise that Mr. Natarajan's place is not in the Congress Committee but in the Liberal Camp.—Yours, etc.,

MEMBER.

NEW MORVI.

To the Editor of "The Chronicle."

Sir,—His Highness, Lakhdhirsinhji Saheb is very lucky in getting able and experienced persons like Mr. R. V. Patwari and K. S. Ranning Vala as advisers in the very beginning of his career as the Thakorsaheb of Morvi. We expect a New Morvi and the people of Kathiawar are keeping very high hopes and waiting to hear of admirable reforms in the State.

I pray that on the auspicious day of accession, his Highness may win the blessings of his people by announcing the following benevolent acts:—

1. Primary and secondary education free, and capable staff in the Morvi High School.
2. Improvement and efficiency in the Judicial Department.
3. Prohibition of the slaughter of cows in the State.
4. Prohibition of the drink evil.
5. Efficient Municipality.
6. Redress to the suffering Bhayats and Mulgirasias.
7. Abolition of Veth, Ijaras and other restraints on trade.—Yours, etc.,

MANILAL H. UDANI.

Bhaktog, G. S. June 24.

SENSE OF PROPORTION.

To the Editor of "The Chronicle."

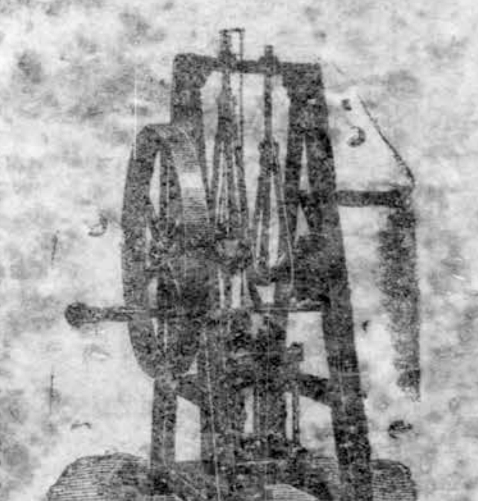

Sir,—The other day you referred to Mr. Natarajan's attack on the All-India Congress Committee. In making the attack on the occasion of the Gandhi Day celebrations on the 18th instant, Mr. Natarajan betrayed woeful lack of sense of proportion. It is amusing, therefore, to see Mr. Natarajan now pompously advising "the Congress Bureaucracy" to "cultivate the sense of proportion!" This counsel of perfection has been occasioned by reason of the Civil Disobedience Committee of the Congress having filled a vacancy in their body with Mrs. Sarojini Naidu in preference to the veteran Pandit Madan Mohan Malaviya. Mr. Natarajan does not say how the "Congress Bureaucrats" have sinned by appointing Mrs. Naidu to fill the vacancy on their body. I am sorry for Mr. Natarajan, whose political predilections have not intended him for Congress politics and yet who dabbles in Congress politics as though it were a toy-engine or a little doll. Far worse than the "Congress Bureaucrats" are the new species of bureaucrats represented by Mr. Natarajan and his friends, who, to secure immunity from a public examination of their methods as politicians, would suppress freedom of expression at public meetings. Mr. Natarajan's present attack on the A. I. C. C. reminds one of the old adage of the pot calling the kettle black. Mr. Natarajan would be well advised to indulge in a little self-introspection before he seeks to satisfy his desire for attacks on responsible bodies like the A.I.C.C.—Yours, etc.,

Sores from Wrist to Elbow
"Completely Healed"
Our portrait is of Mr. John Kidd, of 17, Mill Lane, Kilmarnock, Scotland, who writes:—"My right arm became covered with sores from wrist to elbow and was useless for over two years. I tried different ointments and so-called cures, but they never did me any good. Then I tried your 'Clarke's Blood Mixture,' and the sores soon began to heal up and power began to come back to my arm, so I persevered with the Mixture, and after having four bottles am glad to say my arm is completely healed up and I have now the full use of it." In a further letter over a twelvemonth later Mr. Kidd writes: "I have had no return of my complaint; my arm is still as sound as a bell and never troubles me in the least."
